

The Ball State University Counseling Center is excited to accept applications for a full-time staff psychologist (this is a replacement position)! See ad below for additional information.

The Department of Counseling & Health Services at Ball State University is accepting applications for a professional position as Therapist, starting July 3, 2017. The candidate for this position must be able to provide outreach/consultation, group and individual counseling services for Ball State University students and services on a more limited basis for faculty and staff, according to caseload policy that is average for university counseling centers; conduct supervision and training and perform administrative duties as assigned; serve on unit, college, and university governance and program committees as appointed and assigned. (12-month contract position renewed annually)

Major responsibilities: Provide individual and group counseling services to students, faculty and staff; Provide workshops within Center as assigned. Provide outreach/consultation services as assigned. Provide supervision and instruction to student trainees. Provide university and community service. Provide specialized programming in social justice and diversity as assigned.

Minimum qualifications: A.B.D. in clinical or counseling psychology from APA-accredited program and internship with interest and background in social justice and diversity counseling/programming—Ph.D. or Psy.D. must be completed by December 15 of year employed; Completion of APA-accredited program and internship; meet eligibility requirements for licensure as a psychologist in Indiana within 18 months of employment.

Preferred qualifications: Ph.D. or Psy.D. in clinical or counseling psychology from both a program and internship that are A.P.A. accredited; one year of experience providing social justice and diversity counseling/programming; experience in suicidal prevention or performance anxiety. Licensed psychologist in Indiana.

Candidates for searches must have current authorization to be employed in the U.S. without employer sponsorship.

Apply on-line at <http://bsu.peopleadmin.com/postings/5479>. Include the following documents with your application: Curriculum Vitae, cover letter, Master's transcripts, and three letters of recommendation. Review of applications will begin immediately and will be accepted through February 20, 2017.

Candidates for searches must have current authorization to be employed in the U.S. without employer sponsorship.

Ball State University is located in Muncie, Indiana, on an attractive campus 45 miles northeast of Indianapolis. Approximately 22,000 graduate and undergraduate students enroll in one of eight academic colleges that offer 190 undergraduate programs. We offer more than 140 master's, doctoral, certificate, and specialist degrees, with many of them ranking among the best in the nation.

Ball State aspires to be the model of the most student-centered and community-engaged of the 21st century public research universities, transforming entrepreneurial learners into impactful leaders – committed to improving the quality of life for all. The university offers an excellent benefits package, including health care and retirement plans, tuition assistance for employees and dependents, and generous time off with pay.

EEO/AA Employer/Veterans/Disabled