

Post-Doctoral Fellowship at Eastern Michigan University

Department

Counseling and Psychological Services

Salary Range

32,000.00 + health and dental

Position Description

EMU offers two post-doctoral fellowship positions in clinical/counseling psychology at Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS). These are 12-month positions starting on August 12, 2019. Fellows will be expected to carry a caseload of individual clients and provide several emergency walk-in hours during the course of the week. Fellows will have opportunities to provide outreach programs to the EMU community on mental health topics. In addition, fellows will be responsible for supervising a graduate student, present on various mental health topics during the training seminar series, and provide additional assistance with supervising trainees as determined by the director. Fellows will receive two hours of individual supervision for clinical cases, one hour for supervision of the fellow's supervision of his/her trainee, and one hour of staff peer supervision. In terms of the client population seen at CAPS, there is significant diversity in terms of age, ethnicity, SES, and other social identities. Thus, candidates must value diversity and be able to be sensitive to diversity issues. Additionally, clinical work is usually conducted utilizing a short-term therapy model.

Required Qualifications

Completion of an APA-accredited internship and completion of all doctoral requirements from an APA-accredited program in clinical or counseling psychology.

Desired Qualifications

Preferred: Prior experience working in a university mental health service.

Required Application Materials

Cover letter, vita, names of three references

Starting Date
