

The George Washington University
Psychiatrist, Colonial Health Center

Summary:

George Washington University's(GW) Medical Services of the Colonial Health Center (CHC) goal is to provide high quality medical care to all GW students, provide easy access to care to enable students to return to classes as quickly as possible. We seek to educate and encourage students to become active participants in their own care and to support the University community in making healthy lifestyle choices. <https://studenthealth.gwu.edu/>

CHC Medical Services is seeking a part time Psychiatrist to provide clinical assessment and evaluation, diagnosis, treatment, and management of patients. This is a 16 hour per week assignment.

Job Responsibilities:

Provides crisis intervention to the student population.

Provides General psychiatric evaluations and assessments including short-term treatment, psychotherapy, medication management and referrals .

Coordinates services with primary care clinicians in Medical Services, counselors in Mental Health Services, Disability Support Service, and Dean of Students office.

Performs other work related duties as assigned. The omission of specific duties does not preclude the supervisor from assigning duties that are logically related to the position.

Minimum Qualifications:

Advanced degree in an appropriate area of specialization plus completion of residency program at an accredited institution.

Current license to practice medicine in the District of Columbia

Preferred Qualifications:

Previous experience with young adult (college student) population is preferred

Knowledgeable of community resources to facilitate off-campus referrals

Strong written and verbal communication skills

Strong organizational skills

To Apply: <http://www.gwu.jobs/postings/39107>

The university is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer that does not unlawfully discriminate in any of its programs or activities on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or on any other basis prohibited by applicable law.